NOT LIKE THE GIRLS.
The boy stood on the burning deck,
Heroic, pale and mute,
While the girls cried, as they watched the wreck,
"Say, sonny, won't you swim?"

But not a sound came from his jaws
His peril to avert;
He would not come on land because
He wore a blunder shirt.

A decision handed down by the Court of Appeals reverses a very old and locally famous case from Montgomery county, and known as the Turner-Johnson case. Two of the biggest families of the county are interested, and involved in the case are the rents and profits for many years from a very large tract of land. The reversal is a victory for the Turner side.

At Cincinnati the Board of Administration has given Engineer Burke of the Chamber of Commerce authority to lay a section of experimental brick pavement on Fourth street before the Chamber of Commerce on condition that he stand the expense of relaying the granite after the test is made. BUSTED IN CINCINNATI.

DIED YESTERDAY IN CHICAGO.
Milo J. Chase, Formerly of Maysville, Suddenly Called.

Milo J. Chase died unexpectedly in Chicago yesterday morning, aged about 61.

His home was at Muskegon, Mich., where he was engaged in business, but he traveled extensively.

Mr. Chase was a native of Pennsylvania, had been three married, and besides a widow he leaves six children, all by his first wife, and all grown and married.

His present wife, to whom he was married some thirty years ago, was Miss Mary F. Stone. She has been on a visit to her mother and sister in this city for some time—her sister being Mrs. H. H. Collins—and although a recent letter informed her that Mr. Chase was not feeling well, there was no word from any one that he was seriously ill.

The telegram announcing his death was therefore a great shock.

Mr. Chase came to Maysville in 1868 and engaged in the lumber business under the style of Chase, Dimmitt & Co. He was the moving spirit in building the planing mills of the present Collins & Rudy Lumber Co., and he must also have the credit of originating the town of "Chester," a worn-out old farm which is now the pretty Sixth Ward of our city.

He left here in 1871, going to Ripley, then to Richmond, Ind., Grand Rapids, Mich., and finally to Muskegon, in all of which places he engaged in the manufacture of pianos.

The remains will be brought to Ripley, and the interment will take place tomorrow morning.

THE HUNTINGTONS ARE HERE.
And Nothing Short of Two Games Will Satisfy Ex-Notes.

Truehart Taylor and his band of heroes came down from Huntington this morning for two games, this afternoon and tomorrow.

The personnel of the Huntington team shows up quite an array of bustling youngsters.

The visiting team and the home team are about evenly balanced, and these two games bid fair to be the most interesting as yet played at East End Park this season.

The game this afternoon will be called at 3 o'clock.

Reiman and Tenley will be in the points for the Local team, and Smith and Zimmer for the visitors.

SHORT STOPS.
George Nie has been given his release by the Little Rock, Ark., team.

In VanWinkle the Locals have not only secured a hustling player, but a funny-tongued coacher as well. Dickie is well known here, and has a host of friends in our local 400 who will go out in force this afternoon to welcome him.

Knoor is away off in his work in the Virginia League. He pitched a game for Richmond against Lynchburg one day last week and was pounded to the tune of nineteen hits. Tannehill and Flynn, who are also with Richmond, continue to pitch good ball. It is rumored that the climate does not agree with him, and he is likely to come West any day.

The young folks of St. Patrick's Church picked at Dieterich's Grove yesterday.

THE FARMER HAS NO KICK.
He Made the Hard Times, Says a Truth-Teller.

Yesterday afternoon a party of gentlemen were standing on one of the prominent street corners talking about the political outlook, when a great big fellow, wearing an 84 hat and No. 14 shoe, stepped up and edged in on the conversation.

He began by saying the farmers had no kick coming as regards the hard times, as they were the gentlemen that caused them.

One of the party immediately took issue with him, and asked him to point out where the farmer alone was to blame for the terrible hard times that have had their origin in their grasp ever since Grover and his gang took hold of the reins at Washington.

"Well," said the big fellow, "you see there's the farmer out planting and raising corn. Presently he markets this corn to a commission man, who in turn sells it to a distiller. This distiller makes whisky, and everybody knows that whisky produces Democrats. So you see the man you call the farmer, and the one who is talking so loudly about the hard times is the very one who has caused them. Then tell me he has a kick coming!"

And they all took a drink of ice water out of Superintendent Schaeffer's Market street fountain.

THE COURT'S SAY!
MORE ABOUT TURNPIKE MATTERS.

The Court of Appeals Says a Local Law is Not Repealed by the Constitution.

They married May 1st, and yesterday they parted.

D. K. Jones, aged 60; fourth marriage; occupation given on Marriage Bond Book, "Selling local posts and lumber;" residence, Maysville.

She—Mamie Duncan, aged 38; second marriage; residence, Dover.

They went to housekeeping on the Fleming pike, and their dissension" appear to have been as numerous as their years and their furniture.

Yesterday there was an open rupture, and it took the Police Judge and Chief of Court to adjust matters.

After dining Mr. Jones $3 and costs, and listening for weary hours to his Scriptural quotations, the officials finally got Mr. Jones and Mrs. Jones to "agree to disagree," each to take what was originally put into the pool and go their respective ways in peace.

HENRY THOMPSON STANTON.
Where Kentucky's Charming Poet Was Born, and When.

To settle a friendly controversy we will state that "Jack" Stanton—Major Henry Thompson Stanton—Kentucky's Poet Laureate, was born at Alexandria, Va., June 30th, 1834. Consequently, he will be 61 years old on the 30th of the present month.

Mr. Stanton was educated in Maysville and at West Point, but never graduated from the latter institution.

During the war he served in the Confederate Army as Captain and afterward as Major.

His recent illness at Frankfort has given rise to much solicitation on the part of his friends, who will be glad to hear of his speedy recovery.

THE STATE WHEEL MEET.
One Fellow "Made a Holy Show of Himself."

The eleventh annual meet of Kentucky Division, held at Maysville, will not go on the records as one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the wheelmen of the state. Why this was so is not hard to say. The active working committee had arranged arrangements in charge, Messrs. Tom Russell and James Agnew, certainly did everything in their power to make the meet a good one, but it is beyond the strength of any two men to entertain 300 for two days. This is what these gentlemen and their friends were practically unaided by their fellow-wheelmen, and they did not have the support of the citizens of Maysville. In fact, many of the people seemed to look upon the visitors as unwelcome guests, and they were not backward in showing their unfriendliness.

Unfortunately, one of the visitors from a Western Kentucky town made a holy show of himself and behaved in a disgraceful manner. This reflected on the wheelman as a body, and they suffered on account of the misdoings of their fellow. This man, by the way, is not a member of the League, nor will he become one.

There has been no proposition to issue bonds in Mason county as there has been in Fayette, nor does our law require a submission of the question to a vote of the people.

On and after July 1st the receipts for city taxes will be in my hands for collection. JAMES W. FITZGERALD, City Treasurer.

"Knot" Exactly.
Mason county, Kentucky, Black Knot Commission has already cost the county $750. It was created to find fruit trees with black knots on them and whittle them off. Some of the knots were not high, but the bills for removing them appeared to be drawn from among the poor limbs. The trees all died, but thanks to the Commissioners' hatchet, death was not due to the black knot.

After Long Separation.
Mr. Hugh Hannon and Mr. Hugh Hannon, Jr., of Columbus, O., are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Glenn. Mr. Hannon, Sr., is a brother of Mr. Glenn's mother, who is now in St. Louis, but who is expected home in a few days. Mr. Hannon left his sister in Ireland over fifty years ago, she coming to this country later. They had not heard from each other for more than forty years, and each mourned the other as dead. It was only last April that their respective whereabouts were learned, and it may be judged the meeting of the long-parted brother and sister will be a memorable one.

THEY AGREED TO DISAGREE.
December and July Conclude a Brief Romance.

They married May 1st, and yesterday they parted.

D. K. Jones, aged 60; fourth marriage; occupation given on Marriage Bond Book, "Selling local posts and lumber;" residence, Maysville.

KENTUCKY REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

We are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing that it would involve the country in financial ruin. We believe in a sound currency and in the use of both gold and silver for coinage, provided always that a dollar in coin is made practically as valuable as a dollar in the paper.

We favor a tariff so regulated as to protect the interests of all classes of our citizens upon articles that may be successfully manufactured or produced in this country, thus insuring good wages to the laborer, and a home market to the producer; and in connection with this we favor
the re-establishment of the doctrine of reciprocity.
We believe that such a system will defray costs
of Government expenses, gradually liquidate all debts, restore public confidence and relegate
to the past the undue excitement now prevailing concerning the currency. In view of the past history of the Democratic party, its devotion to the old debt, its opposition to the gold and silver standard, we affirm that the Republican party can be more safely trusted to regulate the financial system of the Nation.

We favor an American policy which will protect American and American interests in all parts of the world at all hazards and will sympathize with struggling Republics rather than ignominious monarchies.

WILL ENFORCE

The Neutrality Laws in Cuban Waters.

United States Steamer Raleigh Sails
From Key West.

The Atlanta Under Orders to Leave New York Harbor for Cuban Waters—The Two Vessels Are Equal to the Task Assigned to Them.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The United States steamer Raleigh sailed from Key West at 11 o'clock Monday for a cruise at sea between Cuba and the Leeward Islands. It is not known whether her commander has instructions to look out for any filibustering expedition, but there is no doubt she will endeavor to intercept any unlawful vessels. She is liable to drop into any small port or inlet along the coast and thus prevent the assembling or sailing
of filibusters bound for Cuba.

The cruiser Atlanta is under orders to leave New York harbor Tuesday to enforce the neutrality laws in Cuban waters. She will first stop at Port au Prince, Hayti, and when she leaves
there her movements are apt to be somewhat perplexing to filibustering expeditions menacing the south coast
of Cuba.

After cruising as long as her commander the Atlanta will go into Santiago de Cuba and lie there until her business is completed. She will be held in readiness to go out and give chase to any expedition that may be reported.

This new duty of the Atlanta, together with that of the Raleigh, along the Gulf coast of the United States, indicates the determination of the administration to give Spain no opportunity of accusing this government of negligence.

While it is believed in official circles that the reports alleging violations of neutrality have been exaggerated, other American warships will be sent to the Gulf of Mexico if it should be demonstrated that the Atlanta and Raleigh are unequal to the task assigned to them.

Several expeditions from Costa Rica
and other Central American ports are known to have left for Cuba, and at least one has landed on the island.
As far as known, the United States was not concerned in them, but the Montgomery will continue vigilant until she returns to Mobile early in July.

THE NEW CHINA.

Now Offers to the World a Vast and Writing Market.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Consul General Jernigan at Shanghai has sent to the state department another report upon the commercial advantage of the treaty between China and Japan. Former treaties contained no favored nation clause, while the new treaty contains concessions
beneficial to and expansive
of all Asiatic commerce. The concessions to Japan have given to the world
new markets and avenues of trade. Now twenty-eight ports are open and the countries having the favored nation clause in the treaty have the equal privilege with Japan. Japan was under restrictions as to the interior trade which have now been removed.
Mr. Jernigan says the most important provision of the treaty is that which makes it free to carry on manufacturing and commerce. This virtually opens China to new industries, as machinery
may now be imported under one clause of the treaty. Mr. Jernigan thinks that American capitalists and merchants propose to make permanent business investments in China they should study with great diligence the wants of the Chinese and not venture too far without accurately estimating all surroundings. He adds: "It may be said that China is the greatest undeveloped country of the world, and that new developments attended with profit await well directed enterprises in this empire."
Mr. Jernigan thinks that several American firms in China and Japan
have foreigners for their head agents, and he thinks it would be better to have American enterprises carried on by Americans.

Attorney General Harmon.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Attorney
General Harmon has returned from a

One-Sided Treaties.

daining business as the Specker Brothers,

Chalmers, by John H. Specker, for the sum of $750,000. Liabilities are unknown.
Mr. Specker at present is ill at his

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did I U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends
who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN
the weekly edition of The Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper
to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be presented highly appreciated by those at a distance?
Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.

FROM THE SEASHORE.

Walter Blatterman is Wrestling With Old Atlantic's Tireless Breakers.

THE VIRGINIA BEACON, June 17th, 1895.
My Dear Sir:—I am obliged to you for late papers. The Register, containing the announcement of the marriage of my old friend Will Jackson, and The Leader with the marriage of Miss Mae Marshall. I hope they may all be happy and contented.
I came from Richmond to Norfolk Wednesday evening and down to the grand beach yesterday.
I wish you would come East during July. I will headquarter at Norfolk until August 1st, and I will show you a good time. This is a splendid resort—the finest surf bathing upon the Atlantic coast. The hotel is excellent and the rates are not high—$17.50 to $21 per week—and it is across me that our people in Kentucky should go to resorts on the ocean, streams, creeks and bays, when for the same price they may have the grand Atlantic at their feet.
You may reach the place by taking the N. and W. Railroad at Kent, W. Va., and land right at the Norfolk and Albemarle Railroad, which is a little narrow-gauge road running from Norfolk to Virginia Beach, and is one of the most beautiful, pleasant and comfortable.
I went bathing last evening in a swell suit I had sent from New York, and this morning at 6 o'clock by appointment with two young men I met here and again this afternoon.
The guests are quite numerous at the "Princess Anne," and some very handsome ladies I saw in the surf were good swimmers. I was amused at one, a maiden of about 15, with big brown eyes, a wealth of brown hair, an exquisite complexion and a figure like a "Piano," who very much resembled a certain relative of yours and mine. The wind was from the North-east, and the surf was running very high. I stood in silent admiration as the fair "mermaid" would make a huge breaker and with a ravishing little scream dive under it, come up again upon the outside and say: "Is it not awful, sir, to have these mean waves roll over you and tear one's hair all to pieces? I declare, I look like a fright and my hair will last upon coming down the beach, and I knew she was just a fool, and she knew that I knew it. This was one pretty lady who could not jump her feet. The breakers stood her on her head, and she reminded me of a tumbler in a circus. She kept me busy standing here on her head, and gave me an excellent opportunity to display my Kentucky gallantry.
Come East if you can. I will do my best to make your visit pleasant.
Business is reviving, and I have done fairly well along the line.
There is an expert swimming master here named McLaughlin, who is very careful and watchful. He told me an expert swimmer myself to come out of the sea when I was not half satisfied, but I thanked him afterward, as I had been in the surf too long already and felt a little ill in consequence.
I was born and raised in the country, as you know. I hope I may end my days where there is something to see—upon the seashore. Yours affectionately, WALTER BLATTERMAN.
